

JOIN THE FRIENDS OF THEATRE AT MSU FOR A TRIP TO CHELSEA

Attend the World Premier of GRAVITY at the Purple Rose Theatre

With Lunch at the Common Grill Restaurant

Saturday, February 20, 2010

Join the Friends of Theatre at MSU to attend the World Premier of GRAVITY by David MacGregor. The play is directed by Guy Sanville. We will be accompanied by Mark Waddell, a Historian of Science from Lyman Briggs College at MSU who will talk on the bus before and after the play. Guy Sanville will give a Director’s Talkback after the show.

“Still considered by many to be one of the most influential men in human history, Isaac Newton's discoveries in science and mathematics rocked the world during the seventeenth century, though the man himself considered his most heralded achievements to be only fragments of the most important work of his life. Surrounded by jealous rivals and a mysterious patroness, Newton drives himself relentlessly in pursuit of Truth, riding the delicate line between divinity and madness.” (From Purple Rose Theatre web site)

Cost: $75 per person for Friends of Theatre at MSU: $85 per person for general public. Meet the Dean charter bus in Lot 89 (Corner of Mt. Hope and Farm Lane) at 11:30 a.m. Departure is scheduled for noon sharp with return tentatively by 6:30 p.m. Price includes transportation, theatre ticket, and lunch at the Common Grill. Reservation deadline: January 28, 2010. No refunds after this date. For further information contact Stacey Pier, Department of Theatre at 517/355-6690. (spier@msu.edu). Final details will be confirmed later.

Those wishing to become members of Friends of Theatre at MSU and eligible for the member rate may do so by going to www.theatre.msu.edu, clicking on the “Donate” button and donating at least $35.
